

Inclusive Education for All

"I've seen so many wonderful ideas to teach, to switch my teaching into a learner-centred one and I'm so glad of it!"

Sonia Pottier, January 2016

This new interactive, experiential course has been specifically designed for mainstream secondary teachers who have students with special educational needs in their classroom and who want not only to improve their own English but also to develop strategies to integrate all their students fully in all classroom activities.
