You can also design your own course, tailored to your needs (e.g. CV and Interview Techniques).

If your group is 8 or more persons you can have a closed group and choose any module to start on any date.

MODULE 1) High level communication skills, public speaking & presentation skills, cross-cultural awareness, relationship building and risk management. - 5 day course MODULE 2) Language in context (communication skills and cross-cultural awareness), motivation and negotiation skills, advanced public speaking/ presentation skills and management/ leadership styles. - 5 day course

You will be working with highly qualified, enthusiastic practitioners who have significant experience in the business/ political sphere. You will explore and develop a range of key English language skills as they apply to your needs and environment coupled with confidence-building communication techniques.

The World of English

Never in recorded history has a language been as widely spoken as English. The reason why millions are learning it is simple: it is the language of international communication and business and therefore the key to prosperity and success.

Throughout this course you will also evaluate and develop your own speaking and communication style based on sound public speaking principles. You will be actively involved in your own life-long learning journey, discussing and critiquing your own development. Every day will be an exciting mix of theory, interaction with others, and practical application of your knowledge/ learning.

With a focus on a range of high-level communication skills, Public speaking, Communication & presentation skills for professionals is tailor-made for you. This exciting course, available as a one or two week programme (you can choose Modules 1 or 2 or both), will equip you with the English language skills required for the successful public sphere professional to help you negotiate your way confidently in today's complex, multicultural and increasingly international world.
